Child Development Practitioner Apprenticeship Program

Ontario College Certificate
Program Code #1184

NEW All incoming students to the Child Development Practitioner Apprenticeship program at our Brantford campus for January 2023 are eligible to receive bursary funding valued up to $3000!

The Child Development Practitioner Apprenticeship program is a three-year program designed to provide individuals without formal qualifications who are working in a child care setting with the opportunity to pursue formal education and training through part-time hybrid delivery to become a Registered Early Childhood Educator (RECE).

Applications are open for January 2023
