The Morning Session Workshop:

Flourishing as a Leader: Everything in our lives flows out of who we are, but so often our own self-care, self-regulation, and emotional skill building are pushed to the side to make way for the very real and demanding pressures of leadership. In Flourishing as a leader, we explore our strengths as a leader along with key strategies for navigating stress, practicing boundaries and self-care, and strengthening communication to reduce our chances of burnout.

The Afternoon Session:

Cruise Ship Crisis Escape Experience:

Join us as we navigate the challenging waters of emotional intelligence in this fun yet thought-provoking escape experience. Can your team call for help in time?
